VALUE STATEMENT

The following Value Statement was adapted from the Hiphop Declaration of Peace set out by the Temple of Hiphop:

The Canada Dance Festival's Hip Hop 360 and its participants uphold the following values:

- Hip hop is an international culture of consciousness as well as a means for self-expression and self-empowerment – it is not a product to be bought or sold;
- We respect life without discrimination or prejudice and work to ensure the positive interaction of all people regardless of race, gender, age, ability or economic status;
- We support the dialogue and action that heals divisions in society, addresses the legitimate concerns of humankind and advances the cause of peace;
- We encourage the sharing of resources especially the generous imparting of and the appreciative receiving of knowledge;
- We reject the immature impulse for unwarranted acts of violence and always seek diplomatic, non-violent strategies in the settlement of disputes;
- We encourage and recognize the importance of self-development and self-expression through art, especially the elements of hip hop (Bboying / Bgirling, Hip Hop Dance, MCing, DJing, and Graffiti);
- We acknowledge our social network and our influence on society, especially on children, and always keep the welfare of others in mind;
- We respect laws, agreements and commitments and are honest in all negotiations and transactions, financial or otherwise;
- We honour the originators of hip hop and reflect upon their cultural contributions;
- We appreciate the principles of positive hip hop culture and recognize that Hip hop culture is preserved, nurtured and developed when we preserve, nurture and develop one another.

I, _____, agree to fully embrace the aforementioned values.
